

The Weekly Valley Herald.

Vol. XXI.—No. 44.

CHASKA, MINN., THURSDAY

SEPTEMBER 6, 1883.

WHOLE NO. 1004.

F. E. DU TOIT,
PENSION AGENT.

Office in "Herald" Block, Chaska
MERCHANTS HOTEL.
J. F. Dilley, Prop.
Chaska, Minn.

The "Merchants" is now prepared for business. If you want a square meal, and a clean bed stop with me, second door East of "Herald Block."

CESTREICH BROS.
BRICK and STONE
MASON'S,
PLASTERERS, &c.

Chaska, Minn.
Will do all work in their line either by contract or by the day, at lowest living rates.

THE SARGENT HOUSE

This new hotel will be open for accommodation of travelers
SEPTEMBER 1, 1883.
is situated nearly opposite the Court House.

CHASKA, Minn.

AUG. WEBBER,
SALOON!
Opposite Court House,
CHASKA, Minn.

Choice Wine, Liquors, Cigars and Liqueurs.
FREE LUNCH EVERY DAY.

CITY
FURNITURE
STORE.
CHEAP FOR CASH!

UNDERTAKING A SPECIALTY
The undersigned has constantly on hand a full line of furniture and undertakers materials, which will be sold cheap for cash. New work and repairing done to order.

JOHN DOLS.

NEW Livery Stable,
JERRY EHMAN, Prop.
ASHIONABLE EQUIPAGES FURNISHED
ON SHORT NOTICE.

Will also attend to Auctions in all parts of the County, at Reasonable Rates.

JERRY EHMAN,
Chaska, Minn.
Office at Washington Hotel.

VALLEY
Flouring Mills
J. G. EITEL, Prop.
CHASKA, Minn.

The undersigned is prepared to do custom work at his mill and guaranteed satisfaction. Every cent he can have from his own WHEAT. From the time he receives the wheat until it is milled or fed can be accommodated. A full line of the choicest brands of flour always on hand. Also bread and rolls. J. G. EITEL

ACKERMANN BROS.
Roller Mill,
Young America, Minn.

Best grade of granulated roller flour as well as Straight Family XXXX Flour, shorts, bran and feed always on hand, and for sale or exchanged for wheat. We also grind Corn, Rye and Buckwheat.

On Friday and Saturday of every week.

EMPIRE
Billiard Hall
—BY—
Samels & White

CHASKA, MINN.

We would respectfully inform the public that we have lately opened a first class saloon and billiard hall, and constantly keep on hand a large stock of choice wines, liquors and cigars. The best of beer always on tap. We also sell whiskey by the gallon at the very lowest possible figures.

SAMELS & WHITE.

CHASEKA
WAGON FACTORY
by JOSEPH ESS,
CHASEKA, MINN.

PLATFORM BUGGIES
THE CHEAPEST & BEST MADE.

Also Agent for the Cortland, New York Buggies.

I have a supply of Lumber Wagons, and Single Wagons on hand of my own make which I will sell as cheap as the cheapest warranted to be first class in every respect.

I am also agent for the celebrated Cortland, New York Platform Spring Buggy "as the thing for family use. Which I will sell very cheap and warrant.

Shop above Barthel's Saloon.

The Valley Herald.
Published every Thursday by
A. L. & F. E. DU TOIT,
Editors and Publishers.

COUNTY OFFICERS:
Treasurer—Peter Wiegert.
Auditor—L. Streukens.
Register of Deeds—F. Greiner.
Surveyor—John H. Johnson.
Clerk of Court—G. Krueger.
Attorney—W. C. Odell.
Surveyor—Muschberg.
Judge of Probate—Julius Schuler.
County Commissioner—P. A. N. Vreyen.
County Commissioners—Geo. Miz.
Chairman of Com.—Patterson, Chas.
Arvin and Jacob Trues.

The Democratic County Committee will meet at the residence of Mathias Erz, Benton, on Monday Sept 10th at 10 o'clock a.m., for the purpose of designating the time and place of meeting of the next Democratic County Convention.

The full Committee is desired to be present.

Biermann letter of Acceptance.
We herewith publish Mr. Biermann's letter of acceptance of the democratic nomination for Governor. It has the true ring, and also that he is with the people on all the important issues of the day.

ROCHESTER, Minn. Aug. 25, 1883.
GENTLEMEN: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of August 18, notifying me of my nomination as candidate for governor by the Democratic State Central Committee, at a meeting held on the 17th instant.

I accept the nomination and return to you my thanks for the honor which it confers.

Although a lifelong Democrat, I deem it in order to add to this acceptance a few words explanatory of my views on the platform:

One of the greatest evils of Republican party rule is the national tariff laws which are oppressive and unjust, favoring the few at the expense of the many, encouraging the centralization of wealth and growth of monopolies, which threaten the very foundation of our free institutions. The demand of the platform, that the evil remedied, must meet the hearty approval of every thinking voter.

The unwise attempt to ward off the enactments of sumptuary laws, the disposition to ignore the rights, beliefs and privileges of others, I regard as an undesirable and in themselves dangerous policy. Our constitution insures to each individual certain inalienable rights and it is a violation of its intentions for the majority to interfere with those rights.

The importance of our water ways and the intimate relation they sustain with the prosperity of the commonwealth, make the third section of the platform particularly commendable, and the wisdom of conferring on the president power to veto dishonest provisions of appropriation bills must be patent to all.

The enunciation of Democratic docrinies made in the platform is in its entirety creditable to the patriotism and intelligence of the convention adopting it, and a platform upon which so true a Democrat would stand as the representative of its ideas, and success in November would be but a just reward for his bold and honest advocacy of measures, which if inaugurated would be of lasting benefit to the whole people.

But whatever may be the result of the contest now before us, which is but a mere skirmish before the greater battle to come, we may look with hope and confidence toward 1884, when the grand old constitutional party, the party that made this country a home for every liberty-loving and downtrodden son from every clime will place in nomination for the presidency that illustrious patriot, that recognized prince of statesmen, our successful stand, and banner of '76, Samuel J. Tilden, of New York. The doctrine of true Democracy teaches us that individual interests should be subservient to the public good, and that that government is best which governs least. This wise statesman and expounder of the constitution declared that every American citizen was entitled to the widest personal freedom, consistent with the rights of others, unhampered by class, legislation or sumptuary laws. On that platform he was elected president of the United States by a popular majority of over a quarter of a million votes. But by the machinations of unscrupulous politicians he was deprived of his rights and the declared wishes of the people suppressed. But Tilden and Democracy still live, and once more the people are turning toward that mighty leader, the man who, when defrauded, made "personal interests subservient to the public good," and calling on him to lead them to another glorious victory. His re-nomination will be the signal for a general uprising, a canvas a triumphal march from ocean to ocean, and the American people will prove to the world that political shiasery will find no lasting foothold on freedom's soil, nor fraud unrelated occupy the chair at Washington.

If elected, I shall endeavor to justify the confidence you have reposed in me. Most respectfully, your obedient servant,

J. E. BIERMANN.

To the Democratic State Central Committee, Helen M. Doran, Chairman.

WACONIA DEPARTMENT.

Dr. Shillcock, of Chaska, will be at Waconia every Friday. Office at Mix's Drug Store. Parties needing the Dr., can telegraph to him at his expense.

Kissing on the side-walk? whew! That beats Waconia.

The recent rain gave us a pleasant atmosphere.

Many of the lake house boarders left on Saturday for Minneapolis to witness the grand parade on Monday.

Mrs. May Steiger of Fremont Wis., is visiting her Aunt Mrs. Linenfelter.

Mrs. May has gone to the country to spend a week with her son Charlie and daughter Lizzie.

Mrs. Lundsten has been quite ill the past two weeks, and has been treated by Dr. E. H. Lewis.

G. Hubbard in a letter to Mr. Mix, makes the citizens of Waconia and vicinity for their spontaneous gift to the Rochester cyclone sufferers.

Miss Louise and Pheme Henry of Minneapolis and their two little sisters who have been visiting at the Lake House, left for their home on Saturday.

Three popular young men, one of MacLeans and of Shakopee and one of this place went out to train a young horse and see how well he would draw a buggy for the first time. He drew rapidly both vehicle and gents. The druggist had sale for arnica and liniment that same evening.

Three strangers on last Monday made their presence evident by boisterous conduct on the streets and in the saloons. They were in that state of supreme happiness known as gloriously full. A fight was what they naturally craved but the peace loving citizens of W. refused to enter into combat, so the constable and justice lost their fees.

Waconia held her annual war dance at school meeting on Saturday.

We will have nine months school this year.

The four months motion did not draw a yester day better than the six months one did last year.

There is an opening here for a good No. 1 teacher a male one preferred.

Mr. Wostrel informs us they will have five months school in their district this year quite an improvement.

Wessbechers district will also have 5 months good.

Peter Krost of Mankato who spent the last two weeks with his brother in this place, left for his home and place of business with many fond regrets. Peter knows how to please the young ladies.

A small number of citizens and friends of the Moravian church attended the Missionary festival in Lakeview last Sabbath and report an interesting and profitable service.

Dr. Collins of Minneapolis with his family is spending some time at the Lake House. Also Dr. Heffel with his family from the same city.

Henry Mix celebrated his 6th birthday by a trip to Minneapolis with his mother on last Wednesday. The sights greatly interested the little lad and while his mother was engaged he moved off with his buggy strong and for an hour or two created a little stir in regard to his whereabouts. Harry made himself known to a policeman in whose possession his relatives found him.

A Tambourine with an occasion eve was given at the saloon of Miller Bros.

Grand & Petit Jury.

The following is the list of the Grand and Petit Jury, drawn for the October term of Court, commencing on Monday, October 1st at 11 o'clock a.m.

GRAND JURY.

Christ Thaemert, Delgner.

James Dellin, Camden.

James Hendie, Hinsdale.

Peter Smith, Camden.

John Dols, Chaska.

John Pfeifer, Dahlberg.

John Schaefer, Dahlberg.

Peter Johnson, Benson.

John Stein, Watertown.

Joe G. MacLean, Winsted.

John Seaton, Holywood.

Adie Nerd, Dahlberg.

John Dietrich, Watertown.

Hugh Velkenant, Waconia.

Henry Heefken, Denton.

Chas. Dawsell, Carver.

My Lindholm, St. Paul.

Henry Lovell, Dahlberg.

Pat. Conroy, Hinsdale.

John G. Johnson, Winsted.

Valley Herald.

A. L. & F. E. DUTOIT, Publishers.

CHASKA, MINNESOTA.

"The war taxes must go," says the Philadelphia Times; "a surplus revenue only promotes extravagance, and the way to dispose of the surplus is to raise no more revenue than is needed." This is a fact that is self-evident to all people who are blind and ignorant who are not familiar with the belief that heavy taxes and an overwhelming treasury are signs of prosperity. The politicians want the money in the treasury to divide up among their friends, under various pretences, while it is much better that it should never be drawn from the pockets of the people.

The changes in the money system, including the reduction of the tax for orders not exceeding $10 from 10 cents to 8 cents, have already gone into operation. The new 3 cent postal notes for sums not exceeding $5 will become available ten days hence. And on October 1, letter postage will drop to 2 cents. The next step to the study, improvement, and simplification of the system of "drop-shipping" or city postage from 2 cents to 1 cent, the extension of the carrier system to the smaller cities, and the reduction of the $10 money-order fee to 5 cents.

The influx of immigrants this year, while it is not likely to reach the phenomenal figures of the past two years, will still be very large. During the first seven months of 1883 there arrived at all ports in the country nearly 370,000 persons. These are the months during which immigration is always heaviest, and the United States has had more than those of the United States were successful. The trials were severe, the ground being in many cases mainly and almost wholly due to the superiority of American machine tools.

Gen. J. A. Erskine, colonel and assistant quartermaster general, was placed on the retired list of the army recently. This will bring the total number of Army men to 10,000. The principal creditors are to be called to court to determine the amount of the loss to the close of July, 1883, in 1882, the whole number of arrivals about 450,000, and the grand total for the year was $12,600. If the same proportion follows this year, the total at the end will be in the neighborhood of 600,000.

The large number of failures this year have shown the need of a national bankruptcy law, and it is hoped that a good law may be enacted at the next session of congress. All the large failures have been of firms with business of several states and the operation of local insolvency laws is not likely to conduce to the business and resources of the bankrupt and the just creditors. Our experiences under the bankrupt law was long enough to furnish the basis for its improvement and perfection, and this work should no longer be neglected.

One of the greatest evils of the day, and a most flagrant injustice, as well as a palpable violation of law, is the unequalization of taxation of the wealth of the cities. The time will come when this growing form of oppression must be redressed, or serious results may arise. In St. Paul, Minneapolis, and perhaps other places, men of millions are not paying one-cent the rate of taxation that is expected from the comparatively poor and moderate from $100 to $10,000 per year. The tax on tea, tobacco, while millions upon millions sit idly, wholly escape taxation or pay a sum that is almost contemptible.

The wheat crop of England is to be below the average quantity, with nothing to show for it but quality. There is no reason to believe that the competition from India will be unusually large for the coming year. Our own surplus will not be so great but that Europe will want it, without question, at tolerably satisfactory prices. While commercial failures are unpleasantly frequent, and many industrial establishments are failing little by little, no profit, or indeed are standing idle, awaiting a resurrection. The disturbances were probably caused by the same earthquake and tremor that affected Andam and other towns in Java, Aug. 22.

A fire at Clinton, Iowa, recently destroyed the vegetable canning factory of J. H. Hemmeny & Co., with nearly all its contents. The fire broke out at 1:30, and the building, which had been built of wood, was entirely destroyed. The factory was outside the city limits, beyond fire protection. The loss was estimated at $10,000, and the insurance company will pay a tax of 10 cents upon each barrel, while millions upon millions sit idly, wholly escape taxation or pay a sum that is almost contemptible.

Judge Lawrence, first controller of the treasury of the United States, expresses the opinion that the postal telegraph system is more popular than any other proposition to reduce tolls, but that it has been raised on the ground that the government had no right to interfere with private business. "Oh, that is folly," replied the judge. Great monopolies and corporations are very prone to fall into a state of corruption when congress speaks of interfering on behalf of the masses. There is no trouble about the constitution. Congress has a perfect right to say how much tolls may be charged by the telegraph companies. Judge Lawrence says, everybody will agree with him, that it is a mistake that the company, which was in last common carrier, should not be allowed to take property worth $15,000,000 water it to $80,000,000, tax the community to pay large dividends.

New York Mail intimates that there is a large amount of spurious and deleterious tea in the country, which has been permitted to enter at the numerous ports in spite of stringent regulations to the contrary. The law, however, is a steady-going complaint concerning the administration and consequent poisoning of the articles of household food and consumption, and, while some of it is exaggerated, there is enough foundation for it to require all the vigilance and care that can be exercised.

Another Connecticut Horror. Rose Clark, about twenty-five years old, the daughter of N. W. Clark of Stepford, Conn., was found dead near her father's residence, in the room of the national guard; Gen. Terry and staff, Bishop Ireland, while immediately in rear, Mr. O'Brien and Ladd were also present. The body lay lifeless a short time, but was soon brought to life again, and was removed to the hospital, where she died.

Rox Zeeble, the Spanish girl, is residing in voluntary exile at Genoa. She awaits Victoria's protection from Zulu authority.

GENERAL NEWS IN BRIEF. At this season of the year, and later on in the fall, there is an unusual liability to fires along the lines of railroad. This is particularly true of the English and adulterated tea, in its manufacture and sale. The ordinary perils and dangers of household living are enough without having a poisoned table, or some other equally unwholesome ingredient in the tea pot.

G. S. Wilcox, a resident of Northfield who has been confined to his bed for the past year without hope of recovery, has been suddenly cured, it is alleged, by prayer. This case attracting considerable attention in Northfield.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

GOSSE FROM WASHINGTON.

Inspector U. W. Holcomb, of the general office, has just returned from a live trip of inspection of various western railroads, during which he made a careful examination of the roads and stations, and reported the offices generally in good condition, and managed and doing a fair business. The increase of business in the railroads of Western Oregon is reported as great, and large tracts of the section are being taken up by land entries.

The public debt statement shows that the national government has a balance of $1,000,000 on hand. This balance is held in trust for the benefit of the states, and is used for the payment of pensions, which aggregated $11,000,000 for the year. The interest debt now stands at $1,000,000, and the total debt is $12,600,000, and those of the states are $1,000,000. The amount received were $12,600,000, and those of the states were $1,000,000. The amount received were $12,600,000, and those of the states were $1,000,000.

The annual convention in Boston in New York decided to raise funds for a memorial to Rev. Thomas H. Gallaudet, founder of the first deaf school in America. Prof. Weeks of Hartford, Conn., was appointed treasurer. It was decided to hold the next convention in Washington, Aug. 15. The interest debt now stands at $12,600,000, and the total debt is $12,600,000. The amount received were $12,600,000, and those of the states were $1,000,000.

At the time for the trial of James Nutt, at Uniontown, Pa., approaches are considerably speculative as to what the line of defense will be. The prosecution are evidently relying upon the testimony of others shaping their course accordingly. The trial comes up on the 6th, but as a great difficulty is to be met by a jury is expected, the trial will be adjourned.

As the time for the trial of James Nutt, at Uniontown, Pa., approaches there is considerable speculation as to what the line of defense will be. The prosecution are evidently relying upon the testimony of others shaping their course accordingly. The trial comes up on the 6th, but as a great difficulty is to be met by a jury is expected, the trial will be adjourned.

On Aug. 6th, the Cincinnati Enquirer published an article purporting to be a soliloquy by William Lee, a famous abolitionist, in which he spoke of his efforts to help slaves, before being captured, to escape. Lee has sued the Enquirer for libel, claiming $50,000 damages.

The suit of Capt. Shinkle of Chardon, Ohio, will be tried at the meeting of the annual convention of the American Legion, Aug. 15. The principal creditors are to be paid off, and the amount of $10,000 was appropriated to keep the first sum cheerful.

RAILROAD NEWS NOTES.

L. B. Rock, superintendent of the Milwaukee & St. Paul railway, at Milwaukee, has been appointed guardian for his son, L. B. Rock, Jr., who has brought suit to control through excessive business.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

On Aug. 6th, the Boston Journal reported that the Boston & Worcester railway had agreed to pay $1,000,000 for the relief of the railroad, which had been delayed by the arrival of the new president.

A GRAND DEMONSTRATION.

The Celebration at St. Paul of the Opening of the Northern Pacific Railroad.

Presence of General Grant, President Arthur, and a Host of Eminent Guests.

On Saturday and Sunday last, the three days of President Grant's grand excursion party to the northern, arrived at St. Paul, and were quickly followed by the party led by the general, who had remained at the marmot Hotel Lafayette, Lake Minnetonka, where most of them remained until Monday, the day fixed for the grand celebration at St. Paul, which had been prepared for the occasion by the city fathers to the entire satisfaction of the general.

More magnificent decorations never graced a city's thoroughfare. Never, with in the same space, has there been more lavishly used colors and flowers in more decoration of streets and buildings. Every one cannot fail to be struck by the beauty, the magnificence, and the splendor of the great event.

The result was that the decorations were too profuse to be specific, and too beautiful for minute description. Indeed, to specify the individual decorations and their cost would be to give away the secret of the great expense.

"The general appearance of the principal streets was like a pathway within a dense forest of colors. Third street, especially, became a veritable jungle of blossoms and the height of the buildings decreased to their very top, making it appear as though the city itself had sprouted up into a tall, slender, and graceful tree. The windows of the houses were filled with flowers and greenery, and every window was decked out in a manner that could hardly be described as becoming."

The celebration of the morrow, at least, was not so grand as the previous day, but the decorations were still more elaborate.

At the time for the trial of James Nutt, at Uniontown, Pa., approaches are considerably speculative as to what the line of defense will be. The prosecution are evidently relying upon the testimony of others shaping their course accordingly. The trial comes up on the 6th, but as a great difficulty is to be met by a jury is expected, the trial will be adjourned.

At the time for the trial of James Nutt, at Uniontown, Pa., approaches are considerably speculative as to what the line of defense will be. The prosecution are evidently relying upon the testimony of others shaping their course accordingly. The trial comes up on the 6th, but as a great difficulty is to be met by a jury is expected, the trial will be adjourned.

At the time for the trial of James Nutt, at Uniontown, Pa., approaches are considerably speculative as to what the line of defense will be. The prosecution are evidently relying upon the testimony of others shaping their course accordingly. The trial comes up on the 6th, but as a great difficulty is to be met by a jury is expected, the trial will be adjourned.

At the time for the trial of James Nutt, at Uniontown, Pa., approaches are considerably speculative as to what the line of defense will be. The prosecution are evidently relying upon the testimony of others shaping their course accordingly. The trial comes up on the 6th, but as a great difficulty is to be met by a jury is expected, the trial will be adjourned.

At the time for the trial of James Nutt, at Uniontown, Pa., approaches are considerably speculative as to what the line of defense will be. The prosecution are evidently relying upon the testimony of others shaping their course accordingly. The trial comes up on the 6th, but as a great difficulty is to be met by a jury is expected, the trial will be adjourned.

Washington House!

CHASEKA, MINNESOTA.

No. Beirstettel.

This old and well known Hotel has been entirely refitted, and now offers the best of accommodations to the traveling public.

Good Sample Room for Traveling Salesmen.

The Best of LIQUORS, WINES & CIGARS kept at the Bar.

Fresh Beer always on tap.

Charges Reasonable.

(SAMPLE ATTACHED)

Marble Shop.

St. HUBERT CHANHASSEN.

The undersigned has opened a new marble shop in St. Hubert, Chanhassen, and is ready to furnish Monuments, head stones, and marble work of all kinds, and will guarantee all of his work as to quality and workmanship, and at prices that will do him justice.

FOR WORK SOLICITED,

PETER FEYERHORN,

Prop.

I BESEMANN.

ANTON TIETZ.

BESEMANN & TIETZ.

Billiard Hall!

CHASEKA, MINN.

We have just fitted up

one of the neatest

SAOLONS AND BILLIARD HALLS

In Chaska, and will keep constantly on hand the best of Liquors, Wines and Cigars.

Also Fresh Beer on tap every morning.

FREE LUNCH EVERY MORNING.

GIVE US A CALL.

"OLD RELIABLE"

CHASEKA

Insurance Agency.

JOSEPH FRANKEN, AG't.

Agent for all of the leading

FIRE, LIFE & HAIL

Insurance Companies.

Policies Issued at home, and Losses promptly paid.

For full particulars inquire at the

DRUG STORE, Chaska.

DR. P. F. SHILLOCK,

Deutscher Arzt,

Office in Hotel Block, Chaska, Minn.

Office hours 9-11 a.m. & 2-4 p.m.

CHASEKA ONE PRICE

Boot & Shoe

STORE by

G. H. Schröers,

CHASEKA, MINN.

All goods warranted to be A No. 1.

Cheap for Cash.

BOOTS AND SHOES MADE TO ORDER.

Repairing done cheap to customers.

N E W

FURNITURE STORE

Burkhart Bros.

Opposite Goodrich's 99 cent store.

CHASEKA, MINNESOTA.

Wool, Hair and Musk Mat tresses, Wool Pillows,

&c. &c.

Repairing promptly attended to. All work guaranteed, and charges reasonable.

BURKHART BROS.

NEW STORE!

NEW GOODS!!

NEW PRICES!!!

NEW

BOOTS & SHOES STORE.

BY

FRANK BISELE

Chaska Minn.

I have just received and opened a large stock of boots, shoes, rubbers, rubber boots, slippers, etc.

All goods warranted No. 1 in quality and will be sold very

CHEAP FOR CASH!

Store opposite Chas. Eder's

Leon.

John Streukens.

Cologne, Miss.

Boot and Shoe Maker.

Repairing neatly and promptly done.

VALLEY HERALD

E. H. TIME TABLE

Minneapolis & St. Louis R. R.

SOUTHERN DIVISION

Passenger 4:15 a.m. | Passenger 6:30 a.m.

do 7:30 a.m. | do 8:30 a.m.

do 9:30 a.m. | do 10:30 a.m.

do 11:30 a.m. | do 12:30 p.m.

H. D. WEAVER, Agt.

C. M. & St. P. E'y, H. & D. DIV.

TIMING TABLE NO. 5.

EAST. WEST.

Mixed 6:15 a.m. | Passenger 6:30 a.m.

Passenger 4:15 p.m. | Mixed 6:30 p.m.

The above trains connect at Colomes with

FRED GRIENER, Jr. Agent

HOME AND COUNTY NEWS.

Cold nights.

Look out for frost.

Cut your corn in time.

Business is picking up.

Chaska Fair, Saturday Sept 29th.

Soldiers Re-Union Friday & Saturday.

New wheat is coming into market.

The undersigned will rent his farm to a good tenant for one or more years upon favorable terms.

Said farm is situated 1½ miles from Chaska on Victoria road. For particulars inquire on premises of AUGUST WINHOLZ.

A Reward.

Will be paid to any person for information and proof of to persons conversing my beer kegs to their own use.

Chaska, Sept 3d 1883.

FARMS FOR SALE.

I will sell my farm situated in sections 8 & 17, Dahlgren, consisting of 400 acres, with good buildings, plow land, meadow, timber and pasture. Will be sold in 80 acre tracts if desirable.

One third cash and balance on time with int at 7 per cent. For particulars inquire at old poor farm of JOHN PFLUGER, Prop.

FARM FOR RENT.

The undersigned will rent his farm to a good tenant for one or more years upon favorable terms.

Said farm is situated 1½ miles from Chaska on Victoria road. For particulars inquire on premises of AUGUST WINHOLZ.

Award.

Will be paid to any person for information and proof of to persons conversing my beer kegs to their own use.

Chaska, Sept 3d 1883.

Struck by Lightning.

The residence of Casper Roth, of Benton was struck by lightning last week, very nearly destroying the same, and the family narrowly escaped with their lives. The building was not rodded.

The building of Henry Hoefken, of the same town was also struck at the same time, but fortunately the building had one of Fred Iltis rods, and it carried off the fluid and occasioned no damages. This is the second time that this rod has been struck by lightning, both times saving the building.

OUG WINHOLZ.

OBITUARY.

Died at Waterlawn, Carver Co., Minn. Aug 28th A.D. 1883, Frank

Messrs H. & O. Goodrich invite bids for certain carpenter work.

Also several new legal notices.

The funeral of Dr. Frank Lewis last Saturday, attracted a large number of people to Chaska, many from quite a distance from Chaska.

The Dr., was a great favorite and had an extended circle of warm friends.

Co. Supt Vreyens, publishes his notice of "Public examinations of Teachers" in this issue of the HAWAII, to which we call the attention of all intending to teach in our public schools this winter.

The Chaska Cornet Band, was invited by the Villard reception committee of Minneapolis, to take part in the celebration. They accepted and went down Monday and report a good time.

New Buildings.

We understand that Ewald O-streich, late of Norwood, and one of his brothers, have each purchased lots in Chaska, and will erect dwelling thereon this fall.

We will speak more particularly of these buildings just as soon as we get hold of the particulars.

An Annual Festival.

The Young America Mannerchor

Singing Society, will hold their annual festival on Sunday September 29th. Several outside societies are expected to be present and a good time is anticipated. Several Chaska-ites are expecting to be present.

Moved To Minneapolis.

Capt. W. H. Mills, of Carver, has moved to Minneapolis on Saturday.

He goes into the flour, feed and commission at 310 Plymouth Avenue. He has a good business location and every prospect of success.

The village of Carver, and in fact the entire County of Carver, lives one of her best and most influential citizens in the removal of the Capt., to Minneapolis. However he has the best wishes of a host of friends for success in his new home.

Look To Your Corn.

The farmers of Mc Leod county should watch their corn fields very closely and as soon as the corn is full in the milk stage and kernels begin to glaze, cut it and leave it to ripen in the field before cut-

The Weekly Valley Herald.

Vol. XXI.—No. 45.

CHASEA, MINN., THURSDAY SEPTEMBER 13, 1863.

WHOLE NO. 1085.

F. E. DU TOIT,
PENSION AGENT.

Office in "Herald" Block, Chaska.

CHASKEA HOTEL.
J. F. Dilley, Prop.
Chaska.

The "Merchants" is now prepared for business. If you want a square meal, and a clean bed stop with me, second door east of "Herald Block."

CESTREICH BROS
BRICK AND STONE

MASON'S,
PLASTERERS, &c.

Chaska, Minn.
Will do all work in their line either by contract or by the day, at lowest living rates.

THE SARGENT HOUSE

This new hotel will be open for account of travelers.

SEPTEMBER 1, 1863.

is situated nearly opposite the Court house.

CHASEA, MINN.

AUG. WEZER,
SALOON!

Opposite Court House,
CHASEA, MINN.

Choice Wines, Liquors, Cigars and Liqueurs.

FREE LUNCH EVERY DAY.

CITY
FURNITURE STORE.

CHEAP FOR CASH!

UNDERTAKING A SPECIALTY.

The undersigned has consistently on hand a full line of furniture and undertakers materials, which will be sold cheap for cash. New work and repairing done to order.

JOHN DOLLS.

NEW Livery Stable,
JERRY EHMAN, Prop.

ASHIONABLE EQUIPAGES FURNISHED
ON SHORT NOTICE.

Will also attend to Auctions in all parts of the County, at reasonable rates.

JERRY EHMAN,
Chaska, Minn.

Office at Washington Hotel.

VALLEY

Flouring Mills

J. G. EITEL, Prop.
CHASEA, MINN.

The undersigned is prepared to do custom work at his mill and guarantee satisfaction. He can furnish flour in bags, sacks, barrels, etc., to suit all wants. He can have flour from his own wheat. Farmers wishing to exchange their wheat for flour, will find him a good market. A full line of the cheapest brands of flour always on hand. Also bran and shorts. J. G. EITEL.

ACKERMANN BROS
Roller Mill,

Young America, Minn.

Best grades of granulated roller flour as well as straight family XXXX flour, shorts, bran and feed always on hand, and for sale or exchanged for wheat. We also grind corn, rye and buckwheat.

On Friday and Saturday of every week.

EMPIRE
Billiard Hall

—BY—

Samels & White
CHASEA, MINN.

We would respectfully inform the public that we have lately opened a first class saloon and billiard hall, and constantly keep on hand a large stock of choice wines, liquors and cigars. The best beer always on tap. We also sell whiskey by the gallon at the very lowest possible figure.

SAMELS & WHITE.

CHASEA
WAGON FACTORY

BY JOSEPH ESS,
CHASEA, MINN.

PLATFORM BUGGIES
THE CHEAPEST & BEST MADE.

Also Agent for the Cortland, New York Buggies.

I have a supply of Lumber Wagons, and simple Wagons of my own make which I will sell as cheap as the cheapest warranted to be first class in every respect.

I am also agent for the celebrated Cortland, New York Platform Spring Buggy "as the thing for family use, which I will sell very cheap and warrant."

Shop above Barthel's Saloon.

The Valley Herald.
Published every Thursday by
A. L. and F. E. DU TOIT,
Editors and Publishers.

COUNTY OFFICERS:
Treasurer—Peter Wiegro.
Auditor—L. Stroeks.
Register of Deeds—F. Greiner.
Sheriff—F. E. Du Toit.
Clerk of Circuit Ct.—K. Krenzbul.
Attala—W. G. Schell.
Surveyor—H. Moehring.
Judge of Probate—Julius Schaefer.
School Superintendent—P. A. N. Vreyen.
Court Clerk—Geo. Lewis.
County Commissioners—Robt. Patterson,
Chairman, Geo. Kugler, E. B. Harrison, Chas. Arine and Jacob Trunow.

Democratic County Convention.

The Democrats of Carver County will meet in Convention at Waconia on Saturday the 21st day of September next at Eleven o'clock in the forenoon for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices:

Treasurer, Register of Deeds, Judge of Probate, Sheriff, Surveyor, County Attorney, Chippewa County Commissioners.

The several towns upon the basis adopted by the County Committee will be entitled to representation as follows:

Benton 9
Camden 2
Chaska 9
Chippewa 4
Carver 2
Dakota 1
Hollywood 1
Hancock 2
Lakeside 2
Waonias 4
Watertown 4
Young America 4

ROBERT PATTISON,
Chairman, Democratic Convention
Benton September 8th 1863.

THERE is some talk of a war between France and China, growing out of French occupation of Tonquin.

A constitutional convention is being held at Sioux Falls, Dakota. It is largely attended and a strong move will be made to get the South half of Dakota admitted into sisterhood of States next winter.

It has been decided by Attorney General Hahn that the director of a school board cannot hire a teacher, neither can any two of the board unless at a special meeting held for that purpose.

The law requires clerks of school districts to render in their annual report or before the 10th day of September. It is necessary for them to comply with the law if they wish to draw their pay.

Since setting up the call, the basis of representation which was fixed up in Mr. Patterson's vote as cast for representative, has been changed, and based upon the vote for Governor. Our editorial remarks elsewhere noted were based upon the first call.

Now that the call for the convention has been made, politics will begin to "saz and sinner" there are already indications of activity on the surface; candidates are already springing up and, it may be safely said there is fun ahead.

The Carver Free Press brought out a new ticket for County Officers last week. It is composed of good men, but a majority of them are not candidates for office at this election. Some of them at least so inform us.

One of The Elect.

CLEVELAND, OHIO.—The Plain Dealer reports that Hon. Martin A. Foran, congressman elect from the Cleveland, Ohio, district, has used St. Jacobs in his family and has always found it safe and reliable, and it afforded him great relief to a lame knee.

We place the call for the Democratic County Convention at the head of our column this week. The convention will meet at Waconia on Saturday, the 22d day of September next. It is necessary that the different town committees of the county, should see that notices are posted for caucuses at once, as the time is short.

As regards the basis of representation as agreed upon by the committee, we think it unjust and arbitrary to say the least. Chaska, Young America, Chanhassen and Laketown are practically disfranchised, and San Francisco, which usually casts two democratic votes, is entitled to 5 delegates. What the result of the convention may be, we cannot say, but we hope that harmony will prevail and some understanding arrived at, that will prove satisfactory all around.

We again call the attention of our democratic fellow citizens to the call, and hope that every town will be represented by a sound delegation.

Thanks.

The old soldiers of Chaska, and vicinity, hereby return their sincere thanks to the citizens of Carver, for the use of the two pieces of Ordinance on the occasion of the late re-union of the old soldiers.

WACONIA DEPARTMENT.

Dr. Shillock, of Chaska, will be at Waconia every Friday. Office at Mix's Drug Store. Parties needing the Dr., can telegraph to him at his expense.

Hold tight to the reins or the buggy might get broken.

Numerous hunters are taking comfort around the lake.

Mr. Ehlen is off to Winona attending a teachers convention.

Apply the lash and let him run.

The Catholic School opened on Monday 3d inst.

Call for mustang liniment and rub him well.

Mr. Eiselin and son Eugene, Mr. Mix and daughter, and Hugo Vogelin viewed the grand layout in Minneapolis on the 3d inst.

Miss Carrie Henk of Chaska was a guest of Miss Annie Niehaus a few days last week.

Pew! How that horse did kick.

Mr. W. C. Bredehagen Esq. of Carver made pleasant calls upon friends in town on Thursday.

Our coats and cloaks are in good demand.

Summer is ended, "when the leaves began to turn."

He went out for a pleasant ride when the shades of night were falling fast.

The new horse balks.

Kuglar Bros., do a large business and will not be undersold. Call on them.

Plums and cranberries are no scarcity in this market.

Mr. Hefta of Minneapolis and Mr. Orth of the same place, have purchased lots near the lake and will in the early spring, erect cottages thereon for their own special purpose. At no distant day this place will become one of Minnesota's popular summer resorts.

The new horse is not to be relied upon.

A party of music loving citizens of this place attended the Stiftungs fest at Young America on last Sabbath.

Politicians begin to "shake" with their friends and enemies.

Fifteen patients waited at the drugstore for Dr. Shillock last Friday.

The weather is delightfully cool and pleasant, and though many who passed the hot days of our short summer in rusticating here, have gone to their various homes, yet many remain to enjoy the lake and beautiful scenery around it a few weeks longer.

A full line of seasonable goods may be had at Chas. Henning's store.

Herman Mantefel has repainted and grained the inside of the Zoar church, a desirable improvement.

You sit down now without fear of fresh frost.

A team hitched to a wagon belonging to Geo. Fisher left town in double quick time without a driver on Sunday p.m. no great damage done.

A scene.—Melodious strains from a clarinet.—Frequent imbibing.

Late hour.—Little girl at door says father, dear father come home with me now.

G. A. HEINECKE.

DR. H. R. DIESSNER, PHYSICINA & SUGEON, HOMOEOPATHY,
WACONIA, MINN.

I would respectfully inform the public that I have a well-stocked apothecary store at my new place in Waconia, and constantly keep on hand a large stock of confectionery, bread, cakes and crackers, tobacco, cigars and pipes &c. Lunch at will hours of day.

G. A. HEINECKE.

LAKE HOUSE,
A. F. SCHUETZ,
WACONIA, MINN.

The best accommodations for Travelers, Fish Parties and Pleasure Seekers. The hotel is closely situated on the beautiful Clearwater Lake. Stable and water on the premises.

Confectionery Store and BAKERY

by G. A. Heinecke,

WACONIA, MINN.

General Merchandise

WACONIA, MINN.

Goods at St. Paul and Minneapolis prices. Product exchanged for goods at Cash in stock prices.

At our school meeting last Saturday evening, F. Dressler was elected Treasurer. Seven months school for the next year, and a tax of $8 mills was voted, with instructions to the board to repair the school house, so far as the money will reach.

Dresser—On Saturday morning Sept. 1st Mrs. Carrie Oberg after long illness. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Oberg was 72 years of age.

Constable Flood has been on the sick list for a few days, but is again on duty.

Thanks.

The old soldiers of Chaska, and vicinity, hereby return their sincere thanks to the citizens of Carver, for the use of the two pieces of Ordinance on the occasion of the late re-union of the old soldiers.

I will take contracts for all kinds of buildings, and guarantee low prices and first-class work. A man prepared to demand all kinds of building material.

Plans and specifications furnished on demand.

I am also prepared to supply builder with doors, sash and blinds.

JOEL JULIUS ENGER.

AND BUILDER,

CHASEA, MINN.

I will take contracts for all kinds of buildings, and guarantee low prices and first-class work.

A man prepared to demand all kinds of building material.

Plans and specifications furnished on demand.

I am also prepared to supply builder with doors, sash and blinds.

JOEL JULIUS ENGER.

AND BUILDER,

CHASEA, MINN.

I will take contracts for all kinds of buildings, and guarantee low prices and first-class work.

A man prepared to demand all kinds of building material.

Plans and specifications furnished on demand.

I am also prepared to supply builder with doors, sash and blinds.

JOEL JULIUS ENGER.

AND BUILDER,

CHASEA, MINN.

I will take contracts for all kinds of buildings, and guarantee low prices and first-class work.

A man prepared to demand all kinds of building material.

Plans and specifications furnished on demand.

I am also prepared to supply builder with doors, sash and blinds.

JOEL JULIUS ENGER.

AND BUILDER,

Valley Herald.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF

A. L. & F. E. DUTUIT, Publishers.
CHASEKA, MINNESOTA.

The reduction in revenue during the current year arising from the abolition and decrease of taxes on certain articles will amount to over $25,000,000.

General Ulysses Grant is yet regarded as the foremost living American. Though his face is familiar to a large number of his countrymen, the names of the masses of people, men, women, and children, want to see Gen. Grant. This fact was observed during his recent Westward trip; and on the mountains and over the other side, with the Villard excursion, it will be found that Gen. Grant is "the observed of all observers."

"There ought to be a law to prevent the people from coming to Newport," said a man at a hotel at that place the other day, when some people of a poorer class arrived there with their babies and their lunch baskets. There is severe comment on the utterance, and some western papers speak of the condition of society where such remarks are tolerated if not approved. But one need not go to the East for similar exhibitions of mobbing. In the West, the same scenes of torturing places, where sons and daughters of successful corner lot speculators, grocers, rum sellers, etc., do congregate, and put on more size than if "the blood of all the Hollanders" coursed through veins. A law to prevent "these people," designated by the Newport dude, from living would suit such chaps as he, but we are hardly educated to yet, though the notion that they are not entitled to any of the things which make life worth the living finds some currency.

A correspondent of the Boston Journal, who crossed the ocean with a portion of the Villard excursionists, now on their way across the continent, thus speaks of his fellow travelers: "When they will go home and immediately undertake measures for the prevention of such handling as that. Some friends to attend the opening of a new of the great high roads to our national posterity. They are envious and jealous of the growth which is aided so much by sturdy reinforcements from their own country, and they have long been discussing the means of keeping German immigrants away from us. They see in the immense delegations constantly coming to us the unwilling condemnation of their own system, and it is not pleasant to them. Although the right minded men they come to us, the result of the inducements offered to immigrants, you will see that they will try some means at home for keeping their people within their own boundaries. But all their efforts will be fruitless, and perhaps a contemplation of the size of America's possibilities will discourage them a trifle."

The objects of the English occupation of Egypt, according to Lord Dufferin's recent report, were to suppress rebellion, to establish the khedive, to protect the canal, to reorganize the army, the constabulary and the police, reform the judiciary, to establish the legislature, to irrigate the delta, and to tax foreigners. Of these objects the first three and the reorganization of the army have been accomplished. The reorganization of the army is almost completed, but there is much to do before the police can be reformed in good condition. The judicial reforms are awaiting the translation of the code. The arrangements for the legislature are complete, the plan for the irrigation of the delta is ready, and that for the taxation of foreigners is still pending. The British government has only to get these things done, and to return from Egypt as soon as they are done, it will be well to employ Lord Dufferin to direct the work, for he has remarkable energy, tact and skill.

Jay Gould says that he believes that the law has a right to fix a limit of rates from corporations, and consider it; but he does not believe it is expedient to do so. He thinks it is not just to limit in any way a man's capacity to acquire wealth. Referring to the growing discontent of laboring people and artisans, Mr. Gould attributed the evils of which they complain to a surplus of labor in the country. There has been a large emigration, and recently a smaller one has occurred in six months; and all in the same section of the country, while work has been stopped and the market is overcrowded with laborers; but in these cases there would just themselves. Mr. Gould thought that every man who was sober and industrious would succeed. The majority of employers regarded employers with friendly feelings, and any animosities and grievances that might exist had been fostered and exaggerated by the society to which many of the laboring classes belong. In the question of legislation Mr. Gould declared that the only safe course was education. Anything would tend to educate and elevate their moral conditions.

The postoffice department has just made a decision in the right direction. It puts itself to a sort of espionage that has been growing up, with the sanction of many thoughtful people, and should follow by other decisions, until the mail becomes, as they were intended to be, entirely sacred and confidential. The decision is another step in the direction of guarding the secrecy of private correspondence and it is in the right direction. The government compels the people to entrust their correspondence to its care, and its servants are properly required to keep it secret. They occupy a confidential relation to those who desire to disclose by their exterior or less of their private affairs. Come under their notice in the course of their official duties. The way that espionage has grown up, owing to the indifference of the people, only adds force to the old maxim, "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty."

GOSSIP FROM WASHINGTON

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

29

30

31

32

33

34

35

36

37

38

39

40

41

42

43

44

45

46

47

48

49

50

51

52

53

54

55

56

57

58

59

60

61

62

63

64

65

66

67

68

69

70

71

72

73

74

75

76

77

78

79

80

81

82

83

84

85

86

87

88

89

90

91

92

93

94

95

96

97

98

99

100

101

102

103

104

105

106

107

108

109

110

111

112

113

114

115

116

117

118

119

120

121

122

123

124

125

126

127

128

129

130

131

132

133

134

135

136

137

138

139

140

141

142

143

144

145

146

147

148

149

150

151

152

153

154

155

156

157

158

159

160

161

162

163

164

165

166

167

168

169

A GREAT TEMPTATION.

Alice Arden was not a woman one would select for a heroine because of her personality. She was neither large nor small; she was beautiful, I think beauty is a hard thing to define, but it is half well, and was of that kind which grows on one gradually, as his knowledge of the possessors of it grows. There was a wealth of sweetness and purity shining in her eyes, which tears could never wash out; and the mouth indicated firmness and resolution, which had its beginning long before the night which had left it so come.

The trouble which has come to Alice Arden is of no unusual kind. It is a sudden blow, of a kind which has crushed out hope in life, many times in the past, and will many times in the future, as long as men are made weak and prone to sin. One can only live once, and one should remember that there are heart tragedies in this world, under torture of which men and women drag out long lives without finding peace. To Alice Arden it seemed as though every thing worth having in life was now forever utterly beyond her hope.

She arose from the seat she had occupied for so long, and moved slowly around her humble room, not knowing how much she was suffering physically, how cold it was. There was really little to do. Her bed had not been used; her room was dark, and the only light came from the fire which prepared herself for the task of covering her sorrow from the gaze of her friends—it she could.

She made a fire, and into the fire she remorsefully all the fragments of the paper which she had spoiled in her efforts to write a similar letter, and then went to bed again. New Love, last night! Happiness gives wings of lightness to eternity (lying about one and so many hours), and the mind uses and seconds; but sorrow weighs their noiseless feet with lead.

Mr. George Fenby was next among the actors in this little fragment of human life.

He sat at the window that morning, Alice Arden sat at her. His window looked in the same direction, from it he saw the same scene he saw. The stars faded out for him as for her; day followed, the sunlight fell across his face.

But he sat there with a cheerful fire near him. He was still young, like a boy, his eyes bright and cheerful, and looked as though tears had always been strangers to them and his lips were smiling.

The stars seemed to him a type of the future. Smooth, white, pure—the light stretching warmly across them. He was a man like a child, to him, while he might do a weak or foolish one. He was a man who would always be a man, whose a woman might prize, and the loss of which might easily wane. Weak enough to be a man, he was strong enough to be one, and to him from the life which had once had him,

There was a happy smile on his face as he met his little brother. "Come in," he said, and he answered, "Come in" in every voice.

"There's a letter for you, George," he said.

"Thank you," said George, as he took it.

"You are welcome. By the hand writing on the envelope, judge the message will be pleasant enough."

At this he left the room.

A pleasant message! The smile deepened on the man's face as he lovingly handled the letter. Little time before he broke the seal. A pleasant message!

These were the words he read:

"Mr. George Fenby—I will not consent to your proposal, but I will repeat my offer to you. Your offer is accepted."

So Mr. Fenby's morning gift was the gift of his freedom. What should he do with it? His cheeks and lips grew cold and white, and his gilded day was a sorrowful thing. So sat he, and Alice Arden, who were more widely separated had an ocean stretched between them. And each looked on the same landscape and saw it in gloom.

The village of Marsham was a small one and most of it was farther from the ocean than were they two. The two who had been seen were seen two unhappy persons.

It was a relief to both George and Alice, that there was something the other did not know, and everybody would be looked for there. Secret sorrow finds a certain asseetment of its intensity in the effort of apparent unconcern, and the two who had been in knowing in what one has lost.

In a place no larger than Marsham every one knew the two who had been seen, and so they were. So our two friends were known, and their relations to each other were known also. And so, when they had come back, part of their sorrows had concluded that their engagement was over, and had been dismissed for the time being.

Ralph Warden was too shrewd a man not to see what every one saw. He said a little more, as he spoke, to himself, and then after chiding him, he was deeply interested and very much puzzled. The time had been when the gossip had been that Alice Arden, the girl he loved, had shaken their hearts when it became evident that she had been won by George Fenby, instead of him.

Ralph Warden was too shrewd a man to read it once, more, in his heart.

Ralph Warden came the same road, but a quarter of a mile behind him. Some distance out of the village, Ralph suddenly came upon two figures on the road, on the right side of the road. They had most likely been pulled from the pocket of the owner in removing his pocket-knife. The smaller figure had his hands clasped behind his back, and its contents were so brief that Ralph had read it before he had taken it in his hand, and before he was aware of what it contained. It was the brief letter in white. Alice Arden had dismissed George Fenby.

The man stood for a long time with the letter in his hand.

"I read it once; it can do no harm to read it again," he said.

And he read it again—not once, merely, but many times. It seemed as if he was trying to draw something from the bit of paper which he did not find there.

After a time he stooped and picked up another paper, a long folded document, but the action was merely a mechanical one. He did not open it to see what it was, but it was the same paper which he had found there.

Ralph Warden's lips moved slowly as he seated himself beside Alice, and he like her; she was not beautiful, and he thought she was not good, but her hair was a slim, sensible, shrewd, active woman; she, in the sense in which Luther was, might consider her as a good companion. Luther's own father was most anxious that she should marry, and in a short time he had given up his desire, for he had become a widow.

"It's better to have it over as soon as possible," he said, "but I'll keep it for them and for me."

Alice Arden was passing him. He leaned forward, and for a little drive with her, Miss Arden? The nights are perfect and you look as fresh as air would do you good."

He stopped at once, hoping as she did that George Fenby would see her. He was not there to see, however, and Ralph had taken good care to know where she was.

But Miss Arden was in no mood to refuse. She was reckless in temper and Ralph Warden had succeeded in getting her to go with him. He walked more slowly than before; he sometimes stopped to talk to himself from time to time.

"If this is him," he commenced aloud and then relapsed into silence. "A friend, and he will respect his reserve. What he cared for her may remain a sealed book."

George Fenby walked home alone. Ralph Warden came the same road, but a quarter of a mile behind him. Some distance out of the village, Ralph suddenly came upon two figures on the road, on the right side of the road. They had most likely been pulled from the pocket of the owner in removing his pocket-knife. The smaller figure had his hands clasped behind his back, and its contents were so brief that Ralph had read it before he had taken it in his hand, and before he was aware of what it contained. It was the brief letter in white. Alice Arden had dismissed George Fenby.

The man stood for a long time with the letter in his hand.

"I read it once; it can do no harm to read it again," he said.

And he read it again—not once, merely, but many times. It seemed as if he was trying to draw something from the bit of paper which he did not find there.

After a time he stooped and picked up another paper, a long folded document, but the action was merely a mechanical one. He did not open it to see what it was, but it was the same paper which he had found there.

Ralph Warden's lips moved slowly as he seated himself beside Alice, and he like her; she was not beautiful, and he thought she was not good, but her hair was a slim, sensible, shrewd, active woman; she, in the sense in which Luther was, might consider her as a good companion. Luther's own father was most anxious that she should marry, and in a short time he had given up his desire, for he had become a widow.

"It's better to have it over as soon as possible," he said, "but I'll keep it for them and for me."

Alice Arden was passing him. He leaned forward, and for a little drive with her, Miss Arden? The nights are perfect and you look as fresh as air would do you good."

He stopped at once, hoping as she did that George Fenby would see her. He was not there to see, however, and Ralph had taken good care to know where she was.

But Miss Arden was in no mood to refuse. She was reckless in temper and Ralph Warden had succeeded in getting her to go with him. He walked more slowly than before; he sometimes stopped to talk to himself from time to time.

"If this is him," he commenced aloud and then relapsed into silence. "A friend, and he will respect his reserve. What he cared for her may remain a sealed book."

George Fenby walked home alone. Ralph Warden came the same road, but a quarter of a mile behind him. Some distance out of the village, Ralph suddenly came upon two figures on the road, on the right side of the road. They had most likely been pulled from the pocket of the owner in removing his pocket-knife. The smaller figure had his hands clasped behind his back, and its contents were so brief that Ralph had read it before he had taken it in his hand, and before he was aware of what it contained. It was the brief letter in white. Alice Arden had dismissed George Fenby.

The man stood for a long time with the letter in his hand.

"I read it once; it can do no harm to read it again," he said.

And he read it again—not once, merely, but many times. It seemed as if he was trying to draw something from the bit of paper which he did not find there.

After a time he stooped and picked up another paper, a long folded document, but the action was merely a mechanical one. He did not open it to see what it was, but it was the same paper which he had found there.

Ralph Warden's lips moved slowly as he seated himself beside Alice, and he like her; she was not beautiful, and he thought she was not good, but her hair was a slim, sensible, shrewd, active woman; she, in the sense in which Luther was, might consider her as a good companion. Luther's own father was most anxious that she should marry, and in a short time he had given up his desire, for he had become a widow.

"It's better to have it over as soon as possible," he said, "but I'll keep it for them and for me."

Alice Arden was passing him. He leaned forward, and for a little drive with her, Miss Arden? The nights are perfect and you look as fresh as air would do you good."

He stopped at once, hoping as she did that George Fenby would see her. He was not there to see, however, and Ralph had taken good care to know where she was.

But Miss Arden was in no mood to refuse. She was reckless in temper and Ralph Warden had succeeded in getting her to go with him. He walked more slowly than before; he sometimes stopped to talk to himself from time to time.

"If this is him," he commenced aloud and then relapsed into silence. "A friend, and he will respect his reserve. What he cared for her may remain a sealed book."

George Fenby walked home alone. Ralph Warden came the same road, but a quarter of a mile behind him. Some distance out of the village, Ralph suddenly came upon two figures on the road, on the right side of the road. They had most likely been pulled from the pocket of the owner in removing his pocket-knife. The smaller figure had his hands clasped behind his back, and its contents were so brief that Ralph had read it before he had taken it in his hand, and before he was aware of what it contained. It was the brief letter in white. Alice Arden had dismissed George Fenby.

The man stood for a long time with the letter in his hand.

"I read it once; it can do no harm to read it again," he said.

And he read it again—not once, merely, but many times. It seemed as if he was trying to draw something from the bit of paper which he did not find there.

After a time he stooped and picked up another paper, a long folded document, but the action was merely a mechanical one. He did not open it to see what it was, but it was the same paper which he had found there.

Ralph Warden's lips moved slowly as he seated himself beside Alice, and he like her; she was not beautiful, and he thought she was not good, but her hair was a slim, sensible, shrewd, active woman; she, in the sense in which Luther was, might consider her as a good companion. Luther's own father was most anxious that she should marry, and in a short time he had given up his desire, for he had become a widow.

"It's better to have it over as soon as possible," he said, "but I'll keep it for them and for me."

Alice Arden was passing him. He leaned forward, and for a little drive with her, Miss Arden? The nights are perfect and you look as fresh as air would do you good."

He stopped at once, hoping as she did that George Fenby would see her. He was not there to see, however, and Ralph had taken good care to know where she was.

But Miss Arden was in no mood to refuse. She was reckless in temper and Ralph Warden had succeeded in getting her to go with him. He walked more slowly than before; he sometimes stopped to talk to himself from time to time.

"If this is him," he commenced aloud and then relapsed into silence. "A friend, and he will respect his reserve. What he cared for her may remain a sealed book."

George Fenby walked home alone. Ralph Warden came the same road, but a quarter of a mile behind him. Some distance out of the village, Ralph suddenly came upon two figures on the road, on the right side of the road. They had most likely been pulled from the pocket of the owner in removing his pocket-knife. The smaller figure had his hands clasped behind his back, and its contents were so brief that Ralph had read it before he had taken it in his hand, and before he was aware of what it contained. It was the brief letter in white. Alice Arden had dismissed George Fenby.

The man stood for a long time with the letter in his hand.

"I read it once; it can do no harm to read it again," he said.

And he read it again—not once, merely, but many times. It seemed as if he was trying to draw something from the bit of paper which he did not find there.

After a time he stooped and picked up another paper, a long folded document, but the action was merely a mechanical one. He did not open it to see what it was, but it was the same paper which he had found there.

Ralph Warden's lips moved slowly as he seated himself beside Alice, and he like her; she was not beautiful, and he thought she was not good, but her hair was a slim, sensible, shrewd, active woman; she, in the sense in which Luther was, might consider her as a good companion. Luther's own father was most anxious that she should marry, and in a short time he had given up his desire, for he had become a widow.

"It's better to have it over as soon as possible," he said, "but I'll keep it for them and for me."

Alice Arden was passing him. He leaned forward, and for a little drive with her, Miss Arden? The nights are perfect and you look as fresh as air would do you good."

He stopped at once, hoping as she did that George Fenby would see her. He was not there to see, however, and Ralph had taken good care to know where she was.

But Miss Arden was in no mood to refuse. She was reckless in temper and Ralph Warden had succeeded in getting her to go with him. He walked more slowly than before; he sometimes stopped to talk to himself from time to time.

"If this is him," he commenced aloud and then relapsed into silence. "A friend, and he will respect his reserve. What he cared for her may remain a sealed book."

George Fenby walked home alone. Ralph Warden came the same road, but a quarter of a mile behind him. Some distance out of the village, Ralph suddenly came upon two figures on the road, on the right side of the road. They had most likely been pulled from the pocket of the owner in removing his pocket-knife. The smaller figure had his hands clasped behind his back, and its contents were so brief that Ralph had read it before he had taken it in his hand, and before he was aware of what it contained. It was the brief letter in white. Alice Arden had dismissed George Fenby.

The man stood for a long time with the letter in his hand.

"I read it once; it can do no harm to read it again," he said.

And he read it again—not once, merely, but many times. It seemed as if he was trying to draw something from the bit of paper which he did not find there.

After a time he stooped and picked up another paper, a long folded document, but the action was merely a mechanical one. He did not open it to see what it was, but it was the same paper which he had found there.

Ralph Warden's lips moved slowly as he seated himself beside Alice, and he like her; she was not beautiful, and he thought she was not good, but her hair was a slim, sensible, shrewd, active woman; she, in the sense in which Luther was, might consider her as a good companion. Luther's own father was most anxious that she should marry, and in a short time he had given up his desire, for he had become a widow.

"It's better to have it over as soon as possible," he said, "but I'll keep it for them and for me."

Alice Arden was passing him. He leaned forward, and for a little drive with her, Miss Arden? The nights are perfect and you look as fresh as air would do you good."

He stopped at once, hoping as she did that George Fenby would see her. He was not there to see, however, and Ralph had taken good care to know where she was.

But Miss Arden was in no mood to refuse. She was reckless in temper and Ralph Warden had succeeded in getting her to go with him. He walked more slowly than before; he sometimes stopped to talk to himself from time to time.

"If this is him," he commenced aloud and then relapsed into silence. "A friend, and he will respect his reserve. What he cared for her may remain a sealed book."

George Fenby walked home alone. Ralph Warden came the same road, but a quarter of a mile behind him. Some distance out of the village, Ralph suddenly came upon two figures on the road, on the right side of the road. They had most likely been pulled from the pocket of the owner in removing his pocket-knife. The smaller figure had his hands clasped behind his back, and its contents were so brief that Ralph had read it before he had taken it in his hand, and before he was aware of what it contained. It was the brief letter in white. Alice Arden had dismissed George Fenby.

The man stood for a long time with the letter in his hand.

"I read it once; it can do no harm to read it again," he said.

And he read it again—not once, merely, but many times. It seemed as if he was trying to draw something from the bit of paper which he did not find there.

After a time he stooped and picked up another paper, a long folded document, but the action was merely a mechanical one. He did not open it to see what it was, but it was the same paper which he had found there.

Ralph Warden's lips moved slowly as he seated himself beside Alice, and he like her; she was not beautiful, and he thought she was not good, but her hair was a slim, sensible, shrewd, active woman; she, in the sense in which Luther was, might consider her as a good companion. Luther's own father was most anxious that she should marry, and in a short time he had given up his desire, for he had become a widow.

"It's better to have it over as soon as possible," he said, "but I'll keep it for

The Weekly Valley Herald.

Vol. XXI.—No. 46.

CHASKA, MINN., THURSDAY

SEPTEMBER 20, 1883.

WHOLE NO. 1086

F. E. DU TOIT,
PENSION AGENT,

Office in "Herald" Block, Chaska.

VERMONT HOTEL.
J. F. Dilley, Prop'r.
Chaska, Minn.

The "Merchants" is now prepared for business. If you want a square meal, and a clean bed stop with me, second door east of "Herald Block."

CESTREICH BROS
BRICK AND STONE

MASONS,
PLASTERERS, &c.

Chaska, Minn.
Will do all work in their line either by contract or by the day, at lowest living rates.

THE SARGENT HOUSE

This new hotel, will be open for accommodation of travelers SEPTEMBER, 1, 1883.

is situated nearly opposite the Court House.

CHASKA, Minn.

AUG. WEBBER,
SALOON!

Opposite Court House,

CHASKA, Minn.

Choice Wine, Liquors, Cigars and Leger Beer.

FREE LUNCH EVERY DAY.

CITY

FURNITURE

STORE.

CHEAP FOR CASH!

UNDERTAKING A SPECIALTY

The undersigned has constantly on hand a full line of furniture and undertakers' materials, which will be sold cheap for cash. New work and repairing done to order.

JOHN DOLS.

NEW Livery Stable,
JERRY EHMAN, Prop.

ASHIONABLE EQUIPAGES FURNISHED ON SHORT NOTICE.

Will also attend to Auctions in all Parts of the County, at Reasonable Rates.

JERRY EHMAN,
Chaska, Minn.

Office at Washington Hotel.

VALLEY

Flouring Mills

J. G. ENTEL, Prop.

CHASKA, Minn.

The undersigned is prepared to do custom work at his mill and guarantee satisfaction. Every farmer who wants to have his grain ground can have it done at his mill. He can have flour from his mill at a price which will be hard to beat. OWN WHEAT. Farmers wishing to exchange their wheat for flour can do so at his mill. A full line of the choicest brands of flour always on hand. Also bran and meal.

J. G. ENTEL.

ACKERMANN BROS
Roller Mill,
Young America, Minn.

Best grades of granulated roller flour as well as straight Family XXXX flour shorts, bran and feed always on hand, and for sale or exchanged for wheat. We also grind Corn, Rye and Buckwheat.

On Friday and Saturday of every week.

EMPIRE

Billiard Hall

—BY—

Samels & White

CHASKA, MINN.

We would respectfully inform the public that we have lately opened a first class saloon and billiard hall, and constantly keep on hand a large stock of choice wines, liquors and cigars. The best of beer always on tap. We also sell whiskey by the gallon at the very lowest possible figures.

SALEMES & WHITE.

CHASKA
WAGON FACTORY

BY JOSEPH ESS,

CHASKA, MINN.

PLATFORM BUGGIES
THE CHEAPEST & BEST MADE.

Also Agent for the Cortland, New York Buggies.

I have a supply of lumber Wagons, and Single Wagons on hand for immediate delivery, which I will sell as cheap as the cheapest wagons to be found elsewhere.

I am also agent for the celebrated Cortland, New York Platform Spring Buggy "just the thing for family use, which I will sell very cheap and warrant."

Shop above Barthol's Saloon.

The Valley Herald.

Published every Thursday by
A. L. and F. E. DU TOIT,
Editors and Publishers.

COUNTY OFFICERS:

Treasurer—L. Stroemus.

Attor.—E. Du Toit.

Genl. of Conv.—K. Kappab.

Attn.—W. C. Ogle.

Surveyor—H. Nuchter.

Judge of Probate—Julius Schaler.

School Superintendent—I. P. A. N. Vreyens.

Coroner—E. H. Lewis.

Genl. Commiss.—How.

Patterson, Chairman, Geo. Kugler, E. Harrison, Chas. Atine and Jacob Truett.

Democratic County Convention.

The Democrats of Carver County will meet at Waconia on Saturday the 2d of September next at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following named offices:

Treasurer, Register Deeds, Judge of Probate, School Superintendent, Sheriff, Surveyor, County Attorney, Clarification County Commissioners.

The convention opens upon the basis adopted by the County Committee, will be entitled to representation as follows:

Delegates:

Benton 3

Carroll 9

Chaska 4

Dakota 1

Harrison 1

Lake 3

San Juan 1

Waterton 4

Young America 4

ROBERT PATTERSON.

Charl. Democratic Convention

Benton September 8th 1883.

Iowa is flooded with "stump speakers" of both parties, with Weaver Greenbacker, sandwiched in between.

Our democratic friends should see that the caucuses are well attended, so that the convention next Saturday may be a full one.

The democrats of Ohio, have a "family quarrel" on their hands, that unless speedily healed will cost them the State this fall. They have a "big" enough job on hand in attending to the republicans without quarreling among themselves.

Happy Once More.

Mr. St. Louis, Mo.—A Chronicle reporter was told by Mr. Alfred J. Papin, of this city, that his nephew had the most obstinate case of inflammatory rheumatism which baffled all kinds of treatment until St. Jacobs Oil, the great pain-convulsor or was used. It cured the young man and he recommends it as the greatest cure for pains in the world.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.

In the jury list of the United States District Court, which convenes on Monday, October 1st 1883 at St. Paul, we find the names of the following gentlemen from Carver county:

E. Brav, of Norway.

J. F. Dilley, of Chaska.

T. R. May, of Waconia.

When the old battle flags of the Second, Fourth and Ninth regiments, Minnesota volunteers, were unfurled at the Minnetonka reunion the three flag carriers who had taken them through the marches, sieges and battles in which those regiments were engaged, were so overcome by the sight of their "starry comrades" that they wept like children.

Our mill gives excellent satisfaction to all who patronize it.

Brave Deeds at Alatoona.

The Glencoe Enterprise, published the following article from the pen of "Tom Young" late orderly sergeant, of Co. "A" 4th Minn. Vol. Inf'y. It relates to some of the brave deeds performed by the boys of the "Glorious Fourth" in that memorable battle. As part of Co. "A" was from this County, we give the article entire, viz:

"In one of the last Tribunes of "Subscriber" gives a gloomy account of the battle of Alatoona, Ga., October 5, 1864, but he mentions whole story, I would not for worlds give the feelings of an old comrade for anything, but I cannot help wondering where the Fourth Minnesota, the Eighteenth Wisconsin, Ninety-third Illinois, Eightieth Ohio, and I think the Fifteenth Ohio, were at the time. He does not mention the fact that Corporal Hughes, of the Fourth Minnesota, held his picket-line for half an hour against the rebel advance, with nine men: or how Captain Burns, of the Eighteenth Wisconsin, held the block-house for a mile away, in the center of the rebel advance, through the fire of the rebels, until it was at last burnt out in the evening; or how Companies A, B and I, of the Fourth Minnesota, with one gun of the Wisconsin battery, repulsed three charges of Roger's rebel brigade, and captured eighty six prisoners and three stands of colors—more men than were left in the three companies by at least twenty; or how many men serving the gun of our rifle-pits, was disabled or killed and how the last two shots—canister—were fired by an artilleryman whose left arm was broken off by the heroic daring of the corporal of the Ninety-third Illinois. I am sorry I cannot give his name: perhaps some comrade can—who when the powder was exhausted at the western redoubt, crossed the slender bridge, four feet wide and eighty feet high, over the railroad-cut, to the guns, under the direct fire from the rebel line at less than one hundred yards or how Sam Bridenthal shot the rebel colonel while he was trying to fire the depot of rations."

After the people had been dismissed and the tables set for providing for the wants of the garrison, a subscription was started and circulated for collecting funds for the Glencoe A. M. U. P. provision bell had been made by the Lake-towners people for supplying a sum sufficient for all present, and many more could have been entertained if they had come.—Rev. Sonderman preached the English address in the afternoon, followed by Rev. Sonderman in German, appealing to the generosity of the people in giving for the bell. The sum of $98 Dollars had been made up at the meeting in subscriptions and cash, and we hope that with such a favorable start, enough may soon be collected, to put up a fair sized bell on the church tower. Altogether the meeting passed off very pleasantly.

SALEMES & WHITE.

CHASKA

WAGON FACTORY

BY JOSEPH ESS,

CHASKA, MINN.

PLATFORM BUGGIES

THE CHEAPEST & BEST MADE.

Also Agent for the Cortland, New York

Buggies.

I have a supply of lumber Wagons, and Single Wagons on hand for immediate delivery, which I will sell as cheap as the cheapest wagons to be found elsewhere.

I am also agent for the celebrated Cortland, New York Platform Spring Buggy "just the thing for family use, which I will sell very cheap and warrant."

Shop above Barthol's Saloon.

WACONIA DEPARTMENT.

Dr. Shillock, of Chaska, will be at Waconia every Friday.

Office at Mix's Drug Store. Parties needing the Dr., can telegraph to him at his expense.

The public school opened Monday with a fair attendance.

The tourists have all left the popular Lake House for the cities.

Miss Annie Kohler is spending a few weeks with friends in Mankato and Adrian.

Mrs. J. C. Henderson of Minnewaska is the guest of Mrs. Mix.

Butter is rather a scarce article in our market.

Mr. E. F. Lunth and wife of Minneapolis spent Sabbath in town.

At our warehouse is received daily wheat in considerable quantities.

Swiss cheese always kept at B.

Sunday was clear, cold and windy.

A party of merry young folks, come up the latter part of last week, from Excelsior and picnicked on the Island.

She shed bitter tears and was the picture of sorrow as she took leave of what ought to have been a happy home, and sought when she thought of the "might have been."

Mr. A. Kohler has one of the finest hardware store to be found this side of the cities and will retain anything in his line at very reasonable figures.

Miss Sophie Wessel, daughter of Mr. Mat Wessel, who has been in the convent at St. Cloud for some time has joined the sisterhood and taken the black veil.

Threshing is nearly done in this vicinity, so far the yield of wheat has hardly met the expectations of the farmers.

Mr. P. J. Fried is repairing his farm house and putting an addition thereto. Mr. Frank Lundsten has the job.

Grapes in this vicinity are all spoiled by the late frost.

Miss Mary Steiger left on Monday for her home in Fremont Wis. Many friends and ardent admirers said "Farewell" with regrets.

Our mill gives excellent satisfaction to all who patronize it.

WACONIA BREWERY!

WACONIA, MINN.

WACONIA BREWERY!

Valley Herald.

A. L. & F. E. DUTOIT, Publishers.

CHASKA, MINNESOTA.

FIFTH OF THE NEWS.

Judge Lawrence, first controller of the treasury, has prepared an interesting statement based upon the paper and coin circulation of the country. It shows that the total circulation is $1,575,000,000. Of that amount $381,000,000 and $732,347,573 coins. Taking these figures, and assuming the total population of the country to be 52,000,000, the distribution per capita would be $1,000. It is impossible, to say whether there are one or two individuals, at least, who have not $30,000.

Post office established, Dakota, Atla, Day County, Wisconsin. Washburn, Bayfield County. Special service department, Dakota, Iowa, from Sept. 30, 1890, to service classes. Digital, Lake Preston to Howard, from Oct. 1; emboss, Benton, without change of distance. Postmaster, Wisconsin, Waukesha, J. McKey, Paywood, Minnesota; Johannes J. Johnson, Upland, Dakota; Hamlin, F. Eaton, Estes.

It is reported that the locomotive general has under consideration some more radical measures than those before adopted for the suppression of the lottery business in this country. It is not unlikely that he will give some consideration to the bill introduced by the chairman through the mails of news papers, which contain advertisements of lottery tickets.

The Captain of state is in receipt of information that two American vessels, the Rebecca J. Moulton and the Joe Moore, seized at Sagua Grande, Cuba, by Spanish authorities for alleged violation of the Spanish neutrality laws, were recently released by the consul of the United States at Sagua Grande, under instruction from the department of state.

The following postmasters have been commissioned: Wm. W. Wright, Wm. T. May, H. H. Scott, James A. Moon, Chesterfield, Wisconsin; Thomas L. Patterson, Washburn, Dakota; George O. Hansen, New Ulm; Franklin E. Wheeler, Northfield; Paul F. Hibbard, Alton, Iowa; W. Belknap, Gilman.

Col. Dudley, commissioners of pensions, has become satisfied that the entire country is in the hands of the pension office, as it has been possessed of a quantity of official envelopes known as penalty envelopes, and has used them in his business. John is said will be arrested.

Railroad News.

The St. Paul scaplers are graciously accepting the situation imposed upon them by the local agreement between the passenger agents of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, Minneapolis & St. Louis, and Chicago, St. Paul, Milwaukee, and Omaha Railways.

Two of them have deposited $50 each not to violate the agreement. These brokers have also signed an agreement to make their cars to Chicago, Council Bluff, Kansas City and other Northern western competing points.

A mortgage on the Duluth & Iron Range road to the Fidelity Insurance, Trust and Safe Deposit company for $250,000, has been placed over an issue of $24,000 bonds dated May 1, 1888, payable May 1, 1903, at Philadelphia, at 6 per cent per annum. This will be added to the $100,000 in the construction and equipment of its road.

It is understood that an important change in the line of the Minneapolis & St. Louis is under consideration, making a cut-off between Chever and Lake Minnetonka, by which through trains from the south will run into Minneapolis via Excelsior and hotel St. Louis. This will be very welcome to some, but will spoil their summer at the hotel named and other points on the lake.

The extra fast freight train on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad left the track when going east, at Neosho, near Council Bluffs on the 13th inst., smashing six cars loaded with cattle, and badly injuring the train, including the engineer, who was thought will die.

The new freight depot in Weehawken, N. J., is an immense affair, and when completed will occupy a mile and a third of space. There will be five miles and a half of dock, and ample accommodation for 8,000 cars and extensive cattle yards. The passenger depot is nearly done.

The earnings of the Omaha & St. Paul railroad for the week to September 26, 1890, were $184,40.

Hence railway chair cars have been placed upon the Northern Pacific trains between St. Paul and Fargo.

The Criminal Record.

The crew of the Madeline Wiss, gashight company, is ingeniously robed on the afternoon of Sept. 18, for the purpose of slaying two of whom, called D. Hastings, the secretary, the only person in the room at the time, into a rear room, where they made numerous inquiries regarding points on a map which they could not find. When the secretaries had been satisfied, the crew, with a view to the confection of the formidable competition of American with French products, through the window.

George A. Hall, thirty years old, visited New York on Aug. 1, 1889, for the purpose of himself as an agent of the firm. He rented a room from Mrs. Wheeler, and became intimate with her daughter Annie. He induced her to go to New York with him, and when she refused, he threatened to shoot her if she did not go. The party drove to the Queen's hotel, his excellency was presented an address by the Honorable Currier. In the evening, he visited a hotel just before noon, was not discovered until sometime before the departure of the rogues.

He was a man of medium size, with a mustache, and was shrewdly dressed, being a cut above the average.

The fourth century of Martin Luther was celebrated at the Depauw University, Mr. Schlesinger, president, and Dr. M. S. Smith, who had lectured on Germany, was present at the ceremony.

A conspiracy has been discovered at Sofia against Gen. O. Kaulis and Tschotoff. Several persons have been arrested.

Victor Le France, immovable member of the French Senate, is dead, aged twenty-eight years.

He is in prison on the northern frontier of Croatia, where the peasantry are rising and insulting priests.

Micromanager Matters.

A paragraph has found its way into print purporting to give the new arrangement of commanders of the departments incident upon Sheridan's removal from Chicago to Washington. According to his authority, Miles was to go to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, and his wife, was caught in the act of adultery with Mrs. Goss. Completely was stabbed eight times and died within ten minutes. Miles was arrested.

There is a very clever female thief doing St. Paul, Minnesota. She has already succeeded in getting the start of several merchants who have given up the game. The police are shrewd enough to elude the efforts of the model detective and police force of the city.

Frank Palmer of Rose Creek, Minn., charged with having with his ten-year-old daughter, was arrested in Dakota recently by Justice Griffith, and bound over to the district court. He is now at Austin, Minn., in jail.

East Estate Agent, Farmer, of Minneapolis, Minn., on the 11th inst., left his home hitched on Main street, east side. Four men in a buck drove up, and two of the party jumped into Farmer's buggy and drove off.

William H. Parnell of Philadelphia has been arrested on the charge of embezzlement of $8,700 from Sinclair & Langhorne, wholesale grocers. He was the firm's book-keeper.

Minnie Smith, aged twenty-five years, a prisoner at Blackwell's Island, escaped from the upper tier in the prison to the ground floor, and was instantly recaptured. Deficiencies have been discovered in the accounts of the Philadelphia gas works that may exceed $150,000.

Casualties of the Week.

No case has been obtained of the two-and-a-half-year-old boy, Emma Ahrens, who was born at the hospital, and was brought to the hospital at Bonne Isle, on Sept. 11, in a critical condition. The boy was born at Bonne Isle, at about noon. The case seems insurmountable, and upon no hypothesis whatever can the cause be accounted for. The baby has fair hair and blue eyes, in the middle of her forehead is a strong white mark from which a portion of the skin is absent. A card will be published which will call the name of the mother, and should come in contact with them, and it should be sent to Rev. T. P. Gundersen, Bonne Isle.

An immense prairie fire has just swept over fully ten miles of country west of Fredonia, Dakota. The fire originated at the hills and burned steadily at first, but spread rapidly, and soon reached the air line, when it swept across the prairie fiercely. Hundreds of tons of hay were consumed, but owing to rapidity of the flames little damage was done.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

The Rev. Harry Moran is Boston's DeWitt Talmage. He presides theologically at Morgan's chapel, on Shawmut Avenue. He is distinguished for his radical views of socialism, and the aim of his life is to "Inswit Out and Key to Boston Inside Out."

He is the author of "The Social Problem."

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Van Frank, Kason, Minn., written in 1880, was lately found on the farm of Mr. Andrew A. Anderson, in the town of Kason. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, in Kason, and contained a note from the wife of the deceased, and a note from the son of the deceased.

A

Washington House

CHASEA, MINNESOTA.

Mr. Beirstettel.

The old and well known Hotel has been entirely refitted, and now offers the best of accommodation to the traveling public.

Good Sample Room for Traveling Salesmen.

The Best of LIQUORS, WINES & CIGARS kept at the Bar.

Fresh Beer always on tap.

Charges Reasonable.

(STAMPS ATTACHED)

WORK SOLICITED.

PETER FEYERHORN, Prop.

J. ROSENKRANZ.

ANTON THIEZ.

GESEMANN & TIETZ.

Billiard Hall!

CHASEA, MINN.

We have just fitted up

one of the neatest

Saloons and Billiard Halls

In Chaska, and will keep constantly on hand the best of Liquors, Wines and Cigars.

Also Fresh Beer on tap every morning.

FREE LUNCH EVERY MORNING.

GIVE US A CALL.

"OLD RELIABLE"

CHASEA

Insurance Agency.

JOSEPH FRANKEN, Agt.

Agent for all of the leading

FIRE, LIFE & HAIL

Insurance Companies.

Bonuses issued at home, and Losses promptly paid.

For full particulars inquire at the

DRUG STORE, Chaska.

DR. P. F. SHILLOK,

Deutscher Arzt,

Office in Herald Block, Chaska, Minn.

Office hours 9-11 a.m. & 2-4 p.m.

CHASEA ONE PRICE

Boot & Shoe

STORE by

G. H. Schrcrs,

CHASEA, MINN.

All goods warranted to be A. No. 1.

Cheap for Cash.

BOOTS AND SHOES MADE TO ORDER.

Repaired done cheap to customers.

N E W

FURNITURE STORE

Burkhart Bros.

Opposite Goodrich's 99 cent store.

CHASEA, MINNESOTA.

Wool, Hair and Muslin Mattresses, Wool Pillows,

&c. &c.

Repairs especially attended to. All work done cheap, and charges reasonable.

BURKHART BROS.

New Store!

NEW GOODS!!

NEW PRICES!!

IN NEW

BOOTS & SHOES STORE

BY

FRANK EISELE

Chaska Minn.

I have just received and opened a large stock of boots, shoes, glovers, rubber boots, slippers

c.

All goods warranted No. 1 in quality and will do sold very

CHEAP FOR CASH

Stores opposite Chas. Eders' icon.

John Strenkens.

Cologne, Minn.

Boot and Shoe Maker.

Repairing neatly and promptly done.

VALLEY HERALD.

B. B. Time Table

Minneapolis & St. Louis R. R.

SOUTH. NORTHERN.

Passenger 8:30 a.m. Passenger 10:30 a.m.

do 7:30 p.m. do 6:30 a.m.

H. D. WEAVER, Agent

C. M. & St. P. Ry., H. & D. Div.

TIME TABLE NO. 5.

EAST. WEST.

Mixed 5:45 a.m. Mixed 8:30 a.m.

Passenger 5:45 a.m. Passenger 8:30 a.m.

The above Trains meet at Cologne with main line Freight Trains.

FRED GREINER, Jr. Agent

HOME AND COUNTY NEWS.

Frost Is King.
Fall is at hand.
Will it be a severe winter.
Politics are coming to the surface.
The population of Chaska is rapidly increasing by natural means.
After the County Fairs, then comes the District Court then election and afterwards a rest.
Mr. Fink is making a success of his milk undertaking, and is giving his customers complete satisfaction.
Geo. A. DuToit and Wife, left for Fergus Falls, on a visit to Col. Baxter and Wife last Tuesday morning. They will return Sunday.

The editors house hold has increased; a young 12th son made his appearance last Friday evening and before Sunday morning he was the "boss" of the home.

A daughter was born to our old friend Theo. Rendiger, of Laketown on September 1st and he was receiving the congratulations of his many Chaska friends last Friday.

Finnegan Bros., have just received 50 Chamberlain Plows from the Dubuque Plow Company, at their warehouse in Chaska and Waconia. These plows rank No. 1 all over the County.

Samuel Truwe Esq., one of the old and prominent settlers of Camden, left last Tuesday morning for his visit to his childhood home in the Canton Bern Switzerland. He will first visit Wengen, his birthplace, and from there will travel over Switzerland France and Germany, visiting some of the most noted places in each of those countries. He will stay some four months or long enough to thoroughly enjoy himself.

Mr. Truwe's many friends in this county wish him a pleasant journey and safe return.

Auction.

The undersigned will sell at public auction on his farm, in Sect. 7, town of Waconia on Helvetia road, on TUESDAY, Oct. 25th, 1883.

the following personal property, viz. 1 span horses with harness, 3 cows, 2 heif.

ers 1 steer 2 calves, 10 sheep, and 1 wagon 1 fanning mill, 1 Minneapolis Self

Binder, 1 Valley Chief Reaper & Mower, also a lot of farming tools and household furniture.

Cash on all sums under $5: 1 years on cash on all sums over that amount on good secured notes with int. at 7 per cent.

FRED BARNICK Propri.

JERRY ERHARD, Auction.

LOSS OF GRAIN BY FIRE.

Henry Jaspers, of Yorkville Prairie, adjoining this village, met with a severe loss last Friday. He lost 17 stacks of grain, mostly wheat by fire and it was only by the greatest efforts that his buildings were saved.

We are informed that the stubble was set on fire by sparks from a passing locomotive, and spread so rapidly that nothing could be done to save the grain.

Death of Jos. Gestock.

We copy the following article relating to the accidental killing of Joseph Gestock, of Merriam Junction, Scott Co., from last week's Jordan Advocate. Mr. Gestock was a brother of John Gestock, of Dahlberg, and well known in this County.

"Last Wednesday morning, Jos.

Gestock was killed by a freight train, at Merriam Junction. The train was breaking and Gestock who was walking close to the track, evi-

ently did not hear it, or else thought he was out of the way.

When the train struck him he fell with his head across the rail, and the skull was crushed to a shapeless mass. No one witnessed the accident at the time it occurred, and it was not until some time afterward that the body was discovered. If all reports are correct, no body can be attached to the railroad employees. The coroner was called but did not find any cause for complaint.

Death of Jos. Gestock.

We copy the following article relating to the accidental killing of Joseph Gestock, of Merriam Junction, Scott Co., from last week's Jordan Advocate. Mr. Gestock was a brother of John Gestock, of Dahlberg, and well known in this County.

"Last Wednesday morning, Jos.

Gestock was killed by a freight train, at Merriam Junction. The train was breaking and Gestock who was walking close to the track, evi-

ently did not hear it, or else thought he was out of the way.

When the train struck him he fell with his head across the rail, and the skull was crushed to a shapeless mass. No one witnessed the accident at the time it occurred, and it was not until some time afterward that the body was discovered. If all reports are correct, no body can be attached to the railroad employees. The coroner was called but did not find any cause for complaint.

Death of Jos. Gestock.

We copy the following article relating to the accidental killing of Joseph Gestock, of Merriam Junction, Scott Co., from last week's Jordan Advocate. Mr. Gestock was a brother of John Gestock, of Dahlberg, and well known in this County.

"Last Wednesday morning, Jos.

Gestock was killed by a freight train, at Merriam Junction. The train was breaking and Gestock who was walking close to the track, evi-

ently did not hear it, or else thought he was out of the way.

When the train struck him he fell with his head across the rail, and the skull was crushed to a shapeless mass. No one witnessed the accident at the time it occurred, and it was not until some time afterward that the body was discovered. If all reports are correct, no body can be attached to the railroad employees. The coroner was called but did not find any cause for complaint.

Death of Jos. Gestock.

We copy the following article relating to the accidental killing of Joseph Gestock, of Merriam Junction, Scott Co., from last week's Jordan Advocate. Mr. Gestock was a brother of John Gestock, of Dahlberg, and well known in this County.

"Last Wednesday morning, Jos.

Gestock was killed by a freight train, at Merriam Junction. The train was breaking and Gestock who was walking close to the track, evi-

ently did not hear it, or else thought he was out of the way.

When the train struck him he fell with his head across the rail, and the skull was crushed to a shapeless mass. No one witnessed the accident at the time it occurred, and it was not until some time afterward that the body was discovered. If all reports are correct, no body can be attached to the railroad employees. The coroner was called but did not find any cause for complaint.

Death of Jos. Gestock.

We copy the following article relating to the accidental killing of Joseph Gestock, of Merriam Junction, Scott Co., from last week's Jordan Advocate. Mr. Gestock was a brother of John Gestock, of Dahlberg, and well known in this County.

"Last Wednesday morning, Jos.

Gestock was killed by a freight train, at Merriam Junction. The train was breaking and Gestock who was walking close to the track, evi-

ently did not hear it, or else thought he was out of the way.

The Weekly Valley Herald.

Vol. XXI.—No. 47.

CHASKA, MINN., THURSDAY

SEPTEMBER 27, 1883.

WHOLE NO. 1087.

F. E. DU TOIT,
PENSION AGENT.

Office in "Herald" Block, Chaska
MERCHANTS HOTEL.
J. F. Dilley, Prop'r.
Chaska, Minn.

The "Merchants" is now prepared for business. If you want a square meal and a clean bed stop with me, second door East of "Herald Block."

CESTREICH BROS.
BRICK and STONE
MASONS,
PLASTERERS, &c.

Chaska, Minn.
Will do all work in their line either by contract or by the day, at lowest living rates.

THE SARGENT HOUSE
This new hotel, will be open for reception of travelers
SEPTEMBER 1, 1880.
is situated nearly opposite the Court House.

CHASKA, Minn.
AUG. WEBBER,
SALOON!
Opposite Court House,
CHASKA, Minn.

Choice Wines, Liqueurs, Cigars and Liqueur Beer.

FREE LUNCH EVERY DAY
CITY

FURNITURE
STORE.
CHEAP FOR CASH!

UNDERTAKING A SPECIALTY
We undersigned has constantly on hand a full line of furniture and undertakers materials, which will be sold cheap for cash. New work and repairing done to order.

JOHN DOLLS.
NEW Livery Stable,
JERRY EHMAN, Prop.
ASHIONABLE EQUIPAGES FURNISHED
ON SHORT NOTICE.

Will also attend to Auctions in all parts of the County, at reasonable rates.

JERRY EHMAN,
Chaska, Minn.

Office at Washington Hotel.

VALLEY
Flouring Mills
J. G. ETEL, Prop.
CHASKA, Minn.

The undersigned is prepared to do custom work at his mill and guarantee satisfaction.

Every farmer who brings his wheat to this mill will receive a full measure of flour, and his own wheat.

Farmers wishing to exchange their wheat for flour may do so at this mill.

Also bran and shorts.

J. G. ETEL.

ACKERMANN BROS.
Roller Mill,
Young America, Minn.

Best grades of granulated roller flour as well as Straight Family XXXX Flour, shorts, bran and meal always on hand, and for sale or exchanged for wheat. We also grind Corn, Rye and Buckwheat.

On Friday and Saturday of every week.

EMPIRE
Billiard Hall
—BY—

Samels & White

CHASKA, MINN.

We would respectfully inform the public that we have lately opened a first class saloon and billiard hall, and constantly keep on hand a large stock of choice wines, liquors and cigars. The best of beer always on tap. We also sell whiskey by the gallon at the very lowest possible figures.

SAMELS & WHITE

CHASKA

WAGON FACTORY
BY JOSEPH ESS,
CHASKA, MINN.

PLATFORM BUGGIES
THE CHEAPEST & BEST MADE.

One Agent for the Cortland, New York Buggies.

I have a supply of Lumber Wagons, and Single Wagons of my own make which I will sell as cheap as the cheapest warranted to be first class in every respect.

I am also agent for the celebrated Cortland, New York Platform Spring Buggy, the thing for family use, which I will sell very cheap and warrant.

Shop above Barthel's Saloon.

The Valley Herald.
Published every Thursday by
A. L. and F. E. DU TOIT,
Editors and Publishers.

COUNTY OFFICERS:

Peter Weego,
Auditor, —
Register of Deeds—F. Grether.
Sheriff—F. E. Du Toit.
Clerk of Court—G. Kravensahl.
Attorney General—C. Odell.
Surveyor—H. Muehlberg.
Judge of Probate—Julius Schaler.
School Superintendent—P. A. N. Vreyens.
Coroner—E. H. Lewis.
County Commissioners—Robt. Patterson,
Chairman, Geo. Kugler & E. Harrison.
Arine and Jacob Trues.

Now that the Democratic Convention has been held, we expect to hear the old story of "Count House Ring," again. But remember gentlemen, that somebody must hold the offices, and it is only shifting the honors from one shoulder to another.

The Democratic county ticket is before you, and if you are satisfied with it give it your hearty support. If not, then oppose it. The candidates are all well known in the county, and their records are well known, so there can be no difficulty in making up your mind.

BIRMAN, the Democratic candidate for Governor, is developing so much strength in the southern part of the State that our Republican friends are alarmed at the situation, and are calling for help from the State Committee.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Democratic Convention was called to order by Robt. Patterson, Chairman.

On motion Hon. Adam Hill, was chosen temporary Chairman and A. Ed. Kaeber, Secretary.

Moved and seconded that the Chairman appoint a Committee of three on credentials. The Chair appointed the following committee, viz:

Robert Patterson
P. J. Breen
Ferd Hammer.

Moved and seconded that the Chair appoint a committee of three upon permanent organization, viz:

Geo. Faber
S. B. Kohler
H. Meuwissen.

Upon motion the chair appointed the following committee upon resolutions.

Jacob Schell
J. Winningshoff
W. Hochhausen.

No motion convention took a recess until one o'clock p.m.

Convention re-assembled at one o'clock p.m. The committee upon permanent organization reported the officers of the temporary organization as those of the permanent Report accepted.

The committee upon credentials reported every town represented, but Carter, San Francisco, Hancock and Hollywood.

It was then moved and carried to proceed to ballot for County officers following the order made in the call.

Peter Weego and Jacob Meuwissen were placed in nomination for County Treasurer and Peter Weego received 27 votes and Jacob Meuwissen 4, whereupon Peter Weego was unanimously chosen as the permanent choice of the convention.

Fred Greiner was nominated by acclamation as Candidate for Register of Deeds. Like wise Julius Schaler for Judge of probate, F. E. DuToit for Sheriff, W. C. Odell for Co Attorney, S. B. Kohler, for Chisnau County Board and Herman Muehlberg for County Surveyor.

For Supt of Schools P. A. N. Vreyens and P. J. Breen were nominated Mr. Vreyens received 28 votes and Mr. Breen 4, upon which Mr. Vreyens was unanimously nominated for Co Supt.

The Committee upon principles reported in favor of reaffirming the principles enunciated by the State Convention.

The following County Committee was then selected, viz:

Adam Hill.

Robt. Patterson.

C. Thamert.

L. Van Sloun.

Whereupon the Convention adjourned, with three rousing cheers for the ticket nominated.

A. Ed. Kaeber,
Secretary.

Notice to Whom it may Concern.

All persons indebted to me for services rendered by my Stallion 1882, please send money for the same forthwith to Shakes at John Ruth St. Paul Hotel and save costs.

R. S. STRONG.

WACONIA DEPARTMENT.

Dr. Shillock, of Chaska, will be at Waconia every Friday. Office at Mix's Drug Store. Parties needing the Dr., can telegraph to him at his expense.

The convention on Saturday was democratic.

Everybody was delighted with the recent rain especially the farmers.

"The old ticket," and don't you forget it.

Master John Frederick, son of the Lutheran pastor, has gone to Milwaukee to attend school in that city.

Republicans were left out—only democrats need apply.

The teachers examination, held at this place on Monday, was rather stiffly attended.

Rev. H. A. Gerlson and wife, of Blairtown Iowa, who are on a two weeks visit to Laketon, spent a part of Friday and Saturday, with friends in this place.

After the convention on Saturday, there was a musical at Meisers.

Many beautiful flower gardens near the lake shore, were unharmed by the late frosts.

Then they embraced each other and decided that the personal liberties of men ought to be protected.

Mr. Boethel with his full line of furniture has added a fine lot of folding boudoirs. Call and see his complete stock.

And Ben took in the ducts.

Mrs. Andrew Broberg who has been in Minneapolis for some days under the care of a physician in that city returned on Saturday, much improved in health.

Many prominent business men from Chaska, attended the convention and dined at the popular Lake House.

We were mistaken in regard to the grapes having been frost bitten. All vines near the lake were unharmed, having been protected by the warm moisture from that body of water.

The little lads who have been in the habit of catching frogs at the depot and putting paint on the rails, look up to Mr. Niehus with considerable fear and great respect.

Mrs. Rev. Frederick and Mrs. Philip Sutheimer started on Tuesday for Otter Tail Co. to spend a few weeks with relatives and friends.

Our citizens were delighted with the fine music, furnished on the 23rd, by the Chaska brass band, such a band is a credit to any town.

MEYER & MAY DEALERS IN GENERAL Merchandise
WACONIA, MINN.

We would respectfully inform the public of Waconia and vicinity that we have now opened our new store, well stocked with new goods, finely selected, such as

Dry Goods,
Groceries,
Boots & Shoes,
Hats & Caps,
Clocks, Crockery
Glassware, Wooden & Willow-Ware, etc.

And in fact every article kept in a first class general store.

OUR PRICES

Will be as low as the lowest, and we will guarantee good goods and fair dealing. Give us a trial, and you will be convinced that you can do better by dealing with us than elsewhere.

MEYER & MAY.

Waconia Brewery!

MICH. ZAHLER, Prop.
Waconia, Carver County, Minn.

This brewery has been enlarged and new machinery added to the establishment making it one of the best inland breweries of the state. All orders for beer promptly filled and satisfaction guaranteed.

Give us a trial.

Watertown.

The mill company have repaired the dam and are again grinding by water.

Who is Otto Teas?

The rain or last week has effected softening the ground so the farmers can do their fall plowing.

Watertown is again without a Doctor. There is a splendid field here for a good physician. There is also an opening here for a lawyer.

It seems very strange that we cannot get items through the mails, in time for press, we put them into the post office here on Sunday, but they fail to get to Chaska in time for the paper. Who is to blame?

On last Saturday night the Drug store and post office was opened by some unknown party, but Mr. Halgren informs us that he has not missed anything and does not think anything was taken.

On the same night the saloon of Mr Frank Mann, was also broken into and about five or six dollars taken, also about 300 cigars are missing.

We call the attention of our readers to the request addressed to Judge McDonald, published in another paper, to become the candidate of the people of this judicial District for Judge of our Court, removing the office from the partisan arena. Judge Mac. Donald having proved his eminent fitness by satisfactorily discharging the duties of that office for nearly seven years past, it was but proper that the people should without regard to party come forward, with a testimonial of their appreciation of his course.

It cannot but be very pleasing and satisfactory to an officer who has faithfully endeavored to do justice to all, to receive such an assurance as this, from such a large number of his constituents.

His services have met with their approval, and his letter of acceptance of the invitation so intended, shows that the Judge fully appreciates the good will of his constituents.

A. EISELEIN
DEALER IN General Merchandise
WACONIA, MINN.

Goods at St. Paul and Minneapolis prices, to be exchanged for goods at cash price.

Established 1865.

DRENEN, STARR & EVERETT
Importers and Jobbers of Crockery, Glassware,

Silverware,
Stoneware, Cutlery, Lamps, Etc.

Syndicate Block.

PHELPS & BRADSTREET
DEALERS IN Furniture and Draperies,
Syndicate Block.

Artistic Furnishing a Specialty.

CHASKA, MINN.

I will take contracts for all kinds of buildings, and guarantee low prices and first-class work. Am also prepared to furnish all kinds of building material.

Plans and specifications furnished on demand.

Supply builder with doors, sash and blinds.

Julius Enger,
CARPENTER
AND BUILDER,

CHASKA, MINN.

I will take contracts for all kinds of buildings, and guarantee low prices and first-class work. Am also prepared to furnish all kinds of building material.

Plans and specifications furnished on demand.

Supply builder with doors, sash and blinds.

Julius Enger,
CARPENTER
AND BUILDER,

CHASKA, MINN.

I will take contracts for all kinds of buildings, and guarantee low prices and first-class work. Am also prepared to furnish all kinds of building material.

Plans and specifications furnished on demand.

Supply builder with doors, sash and blinds.

Julius Enger,
CARPENTER
AND BUILDER,

CHASKA, MINN.

I will take contracts for all kinds of buildings, and guarantee low prices and first-class work. Am also prepared to furnish all kinds of building material.

Plans and specifications furnished

Washington House

CRAZNA, MINNESOTA.

Two Bellstetel.

The old and well known hotel has been entirely refitted, and now offers the best of accommodations to the traveling public.

Good Sample Room for Traveling Salesmen.

The Not of LIGHTS, WINES & CIGARS

Keep the bar.

Best Fresh Beer always on tap.

Charges Reasonable.

STABLE ATTACHED.

Marble Shop.

St. RUBERT CHANHAUSEN.

The undersigned has prepared a new marble shop in St. Hubert, Chanhassen, and is ready to furnish monuments, head stones, and marble of all kinds, and will guarantee all of his work to be quiet and lasting, and it is his desire to furnish all marble stones.

WORK SOLICITED.

PETER FAYENREICH.

Proper.

A. BESEMANN. ANTON TIEZ.

BESEMANN & TIEZ.

Billiard Hall!

CHASE, MINN.

We have just fitted up

one of the neatest

ALOONS AND BILLIARD HALLS

Chaska, and will keep constantly on hand the best of Spirits, Wines and Cigars.

Also Fresh Beer on every morning.

GIVE US A CALL.

OLD RELIABLE"

CHASE

Insurance Agency.

SEPH FRANKEN, Ag't.

Agent for all of the leading

FIRE, LIFE & HAIL

Insurance Companies.

Watches issued at home, and Losses promptly paid.

All particulars inquire at the Dome Store, Chaska.

P. F. SHILLOCK

BRETHAR Bkt,

in Herald Block, Chaska, Minn.

Open 8-11 a.m. & 2-4 p.m.

CHASE ONE PRICE

Boot & Shoe

STORE by

G. H. Schreers,

CHASE, MINN.

Goods warranted to be A No. 1.

Cheap for Cash.

AND SHOES MADE TO ORDER.

Going cheap to customers.

NEW

FURNITURE STORE

Burkhart Bros.

Opposite Goodrich's 25 cent store.

CHASE, MINNESOTA.

Hair and Wool Mat

resses, Wool Pillows,

&c. &c.

Require promptly attention to. All work finished, and charges reasonable.

BURKHART BROS.

NEW STORE!

NEW GOODS!!

NEW PRICES!!!

NEW.

BOOTS & SHOES STORE

BY

FRANK BISELE

Chaska, Minn.

I have just received and opened a large stock of boots, shoes, shirts, rubber boots, clippers

&c.

All goods warranted No. 1 in quality and will be sold very

CHEAP FOR CASH!

Stores opposite Chas. Edens.

Rooms.

John Pfeifer, Prop.

John Pfeifer, Prop.